Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

The God of heaven and earth calls us together.
We come to explore matters of the Spirit.

There is so much we do not know or understand.
So much of God is unknown to us.

Let us look carefully at the objects of our worship.
Our attention is easily diverted from God.

We want to worship the One who gives us breath.
We reach for the Reality beyond our knowing.

In God we live and move and have our being.
All that we have and are comes from God.

God is not limited to shrines made by us.
God is everywhere present in the whole universe.

Opening Hymn “The Church’s One Foundation” #442

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, we confess that we have loved our own way more than we love you. The Spirit of truth does not abide in us, for our actions belie the words of praise we utter in worship. We neglect the spiritual disciplines that would draw us close to you and the caring outreach that would link us with sisters and brothers who need to know of your love. We have not witnessed to our faith in ways powerful enough to evoke opposition or cause us to suffer. O God, it is hard to follow Jesus! Forgive us, teach us, help us! Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

Scripture

Acts 17:22-31

<sup>22</sup>Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: “People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. <sup>23</sup>For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship—and this is what I am going to proclaim to you. <sup>24</sup>“The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by human hands.<sup>25</sup>And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything. Rather, he himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else.<sup>26</sup>From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands.<sup>27</sup>God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us.<sup>28</sup>‘For in him we live and move and have our being. As some of your own poets have said, ‘We are his offspring.’ <sup>29</sup>“Therefore since we are God’s offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone—an image made by human design and skill.<sup>30</sup>In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent.<sup>31</sup>For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead.”

John 14:15-21

New International Version

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

<sup>15</sup>“If you love me, keep my commands. <sup>16</sup>And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever— <sup>17</sup>the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. <sup>18</sup>I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup>On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. <sup>21</sup>Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them.”
