Message for Team Kennedy

Many of you are aware that Kennedy Corr was hospitalized on May 31, and spent 9 days in the hospital in Billings. We've since learned that Kennedy has a previously undiagnosed genetic condition, and while the long-term prognosis is optimistic, she's looking at anywhere from 3 months to a year before she's fully recovered. For the next few weeks (or more, we're not sure) she is mostly home-bound, and will be unable to work for the foreseeable future. Wendy is her primary caregiver, but has been blessed so far with help from family and friends who stay with her when Wendy can't be at home.

So many people have asked how they can help! For anyone who would like to assist the Corr girls, here are some options:

- Kennedy isn't eating much, but Walmart or Albertsons gift cards would be very appreciated. Additionally, they could also use some help with gas money, getting back and forth to appointments in Billings and in Cody (they live outside of town), and she's on a number of prescriptions. Any financial help would be welcome, especially as Kennedy won't be able to resume work for at least several weeks.
- Kennedy is both gluten and dairy intolerant, and sugar is not good for headaches. But if anyone wanted to make a batch of healthy muffins for an easy breakfast, or a pot of soup that doesn't have dairy or wheat ingredients, that would be wonderful!

Kennedy has received so many beautiful cards and flowers and thoughts and prayers, and she and Wendy and the rest of their family are beyond grateful! God's hand is present in all of this, and we are confident that His hand will guide her healing. Please continue to lift her up in prayer as she travels this long road to recovery.

Sabbatical Committee

The Sabbatical committee invites you to join us in welcoming Pastor Nancy Pearson and her husband, Bob, at Fellowship time after the service today.

Interim Pastor: Nancy Pearson

Rev. Nancy Pearson comes to us as a newly retired Presbyterian pastor who currently lives with her husband Bob in Pocatello, ID. Nancy grew up in Los Angeles, CA and has her BA from Cal State University Northridge. She served as Children's and Family Director at Presbyterian Church of the Master (1200 members) in Mission Viejo, CA for 24 years. During that time, she felt God's call on her life to go to seminary and received her Masters of Divinity in 2011. Nancy received a call to be solo pastor at Community Presbyterian Church in Cedar City, Utah in 2014 and served there until retirement in 2021. Nancy & Bob have been married for 50 years and have two sons and six grandchildren. Nancy is looking forward to being a part of your Cody church family in June and July. Her hobbies include reading, traveling, being outdoors, and especially time with the grands.

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Responsive Call to Worship (from Psalm 100)

Make a joyful noise to the Lord all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness,
come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he that made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever,

And his faithfulness to all generations.

Come, let us worship the Lord our God together!

Opening Hymn “How Great Thou Art” Onscreen Only

Unison Prayer of Confession

Mighty God, you love us with an everlasting love, and you cover us with your compassion. Your ways, O Lord, are higher than our ways and your thoughts are higher than our thoughts. As we consider your unconditional love for all, we are reminded of how short we fall of your standards of living and loving. We are humbled, Lord, to know that our wrong doings are ever before us, for we sin again and again. Forgive us for critical spirits, for selfish thoughts and for living not for you but for our own ways. We bow our hearts before you in silent prayers of confession. Hear now our prayers.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Gloria Patri
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

Children’s Time

Scripture Readings: Jeremiah 29:1, 4-14

Sermon: “Friends, Faith, Forgiveness”
Gospel Luke 5:17-26

Affirmation of Faith: The Apostles Creed

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His Only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.

He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen ·

Gospel

Luke 5:17-26
¹⁷ One day Jesus was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with Jesus to heal the sick. ¹⁸ Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus. ¹⁹ When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.
²⁰ When Jesus saw their faith, he said, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”
²¹ The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, “Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”
²² Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? ²⁴ But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he said to the paralyzed man, “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.” ²⁵ Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God. ²⁶ Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with awe and said, “We have seen remarkable things today.”
