Prayer For the Day

God, speak to us and let us hear your voice. You have given us your Son with whom you are well pleased. Teach us how to listen to him. Jesus Christ is clearly more than a great man and has far more authority than we can imagine. He is truly the Son of God and we gather here as your people to worship in Jesus' name. Amen!

Call to Confession

Confession and Forgiveness

God, we are listening for your voice. In the stillness, speak to us. Yours is the voice of mercy and love. Speak your words of forgiveness to us. You have promised to forgive the sin of all who confess their sin. We admit the sin of our human condition and come to you in prayer asking for your forgiveness. Speak to us in this silence...

Silent Confession

AMEN! We once were held captive in the grip of sin and death.

We are alive in Christ.

We were once separated from God and one another.

Now we live in a new relationship in Christ.

We once lived in the dark shadows of our self-centered reality.

We live in the light of Jesus Christ. Amen!

Next Steps:

- Who is Jesus in your life? Is Jesus simply a great teacher or is he the one who you follow and look to for your whole life's direction?
- Is Jesus just one source of authority amongst many, or does Jesus' authority stand above all other authorities for you?
- Is Jesus simply a man who lived a long time ago or was he the Son of God who took away your sin that you can live in a new life here and now. Is Jesus someone dead and buried or the one who will come and get you and take you to where he is forever?

Matthew 17:1-9 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup> There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. <sup>3</sup> Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.

<sup>4</sup> Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!"

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified. <sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." <sup>8</sup> When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Exodus 24:12-18 (NIV)

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction."

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses set out with Joshua his aide, and Moses went up on the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup> He said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them."

<sup>15</sup> When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, <sup>16</sup> and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud. <sup>17</sup> To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.
