Call to Worship (Based on Psalm 25)

God, we are looking to you for help.

Make your ways known to us; show us your paths; teach us your truth.

You are our God who is merciful and filled with love.

Because you are faithful and forgiving, you will not remember our sins. Because you are fair and just you will guide us in your ways and teach us your truth. We praise you and worship you in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen!

Opening Hymn “Take My Life And Let It Be” Hymnal #391

First Presbyterian Church History

The answer for last week’s question is:

Where did the Presbyterians meet before the church was built?

Answer: An excerpt from a paper Rev Harper wrote: “We met in the Episcopal Church, which was then without a rector, but very soon we learned that the Episcopal people thought it was not right for another denomination to use their building...We immediately moved into Barnett’s Hall. Later, the Bishop came in for an official visit. He asked me why we were not using the church. When I told him, he said that...We were welcome to use the building as long as they did not have a rector. I appreciated his broad and generous spirit...and we moved back...for the rest of my stay.

This week’s question:

Rev. Bainton was the Presbyterial Superintendent, but who was the first Pastor he appointed for Cody?

The answer will be revealed next week!

Next Steps:

- Is it easy or difficult for you to ask for help?
- How do you approach asking for spiritual help or supernatural help?
- How are you growing in your walk with God? If you cannot name anything, tell God what you need.
- As you move through the days of the week ahead, make this Psalm your focus for each day. Pray through the first seven verses in the morning and in the evening use verses 8 through 10 as your meditation.

Act Like Jesus

by Randy Frazee

New Adult Sunday School offering:

We all want to live more like Jesus lived, but simply wanting to and trying harder isn't enough. To truly become like Jesus, our beliefs need to not only inform us but also transform us. It is the practice of reaching up to God and out to others that will drive beliefs from our head to our heart. Act Like Jesus teaches the life-giving spiritual disciplines that will lead us in fulfilling our mission to love God and love our neighbor.

In this 8-session, video-based Bible study from March 8th through Sunday May 3rd. Come to the Parlor and be engaged in these conversations.

Maundy Thursday

For Maundy Thursday this year we are offering an experience of an Agape Meal. It is a service gathered around tables in Buswell Hall to enjoy a light meal, holy communion as a way to experience something that the disciples would have done in remembering what Jesus said and did. This will be on April 2, 6:00 – 7:30 pm. RSVP either by the signup sheet in the narthex or by calling the church office. The deadline is March 22nd.

Psalm 25:1-9 (NIV)

- ¹ In you, LORD my God,
I put my trust.
² I trust in you;
do not let me be put to shame,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.
³ No one who hopes in you
will ever be put to shame, but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause.
⁴ Show me your ways, LORD,
teach me your paths.
⁵ Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my Savior,
and my hope is in you all day long.
⁶ Remember, LORD, your great mercy and love,
for they are from of old.
⁷ Do not remember the sins of my youth
and my rebellious ways;
according to your love remember me,
for you, LORD, are good.
⁸ Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore he instructs sinners in his ways.
⁹ He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.
