PRAYER FOR THE DAY

God of this day and every day, as this year comes to an end and we look toward the year 2026, give us clear vision into the future you are preparing for us. Help us to see you at work among us and with us. Shine your light into our darkness and illuminate the paths that we will walk. We give you thanks and praise for the Word made flesh in Jesus Christ. Amen!

Hymn "Joy to the World" Hymn #40

Call to Confession

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

You were in the beginning; you are the Word, and the Word is Jesus Christ. You are the Word who became flesh and made your dwelling among us. We know that you are faithful and merciful and hear the prayers of your people. Hear our prayers of confession.

We admit that we, by our human nature, are sinful people who need you to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves. Forgive us and help us to recognize Jesus as the one who made all things and the one who is the light of the world. Give us spiritual eyesight to see what Isreal. Allow us to walk in communion with the Holy Spirit, allowing God to guard, soften, heal, and purify our hearts so that we won’t miss God in our midst...

Joys and Concerns

After the prayer requests, we will pray: “Lord, hear our prayer.” Or “Lord, hear our praise.”

Prayers of Intercession

Jesus Christ, born in a stable, be with the poor and homeless this Christmas time.

As we pray, live and give; shine your everlasting light.

Jesus Christ, born of Mary, be with young mothers across the world this Christmas time.

As we pray, live and give; shine your everlasting light.

Jesus Christ, visited by Shepherds, be with all who must work weekends, and those who long to work.

As we pray, live and give; shine your everlasting light.

Jesus Christ, who became a refugee, be with those who fear for their lives, and those who have left homes and families this Christmas season.

As we pray, live and give; shine your everlasting light.

Continue to illumine our lives with your Words to us, like the ones you taught us how to pray. We glorify you and seek you as we say together:

Luke 1:1-14 (NIV)

¹ Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us,
² just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eyewitnesses and servants of the word.
³ With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,
⁴ so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.
The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold
⁵ In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron.
⁶ Both of them were righteous in the sight of God, observing all the Lord’s commands and decrees blamelessly.
⁷ But they were childless because Elizabeth was not able to conceive, and they were both very old.
⁸ Once when Zechariah’s division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God,
⁹ he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.
¹⁰ And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshipers were praying outside.
¹¹ Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.
¹² When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear.
¹³ But the angel said to him: “Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to call him John.
¹⁴ He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth,
