Responsive Call to Worship

The coming of a new day calls us to anticipate God's dawn. The day of God's dawning is like a morning star rising.

The light of God is like a devouring fire.
God's brightness is too intense for our gaze.

Come up to the mountain of God's presence. Wait for God to reveal divine intentions for us.

We are eyewitnesses to God's majesty.
We have sensed God's presence in the stories of Jesus.

Look up, and do not be afraid.

Jesus, whom you seek, is transfigured before you.

We will serve our God with fear and trembling.
Happy are those whose refuge is in God.

Hymn "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name" Hymn #142

Unison Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, we admit that we are seldom amazed or astonished. We take for granted much that was once thought to be impossible. We are confident consumers of human ingenuity and we turn to you only in moments of desperation. Sometimes we think we have no need of you at all. Matters of the spirit are secondary to our self-designed values, schedules and agendas. There is little space in our lives for the sacred or mysterious. We fill all of our hours with doing, so there is no time for reflection or the sacred. Yet we long for something more than our daily routines. Lord God, even if it means disruption of our plans, break into our lives and lead us back to you. Amen.

Postlude

Scripture Mark 9:2-9 (NIV)

The Transfiguration

² After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them.

³ His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them.

⁴ And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

⁵ Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

⁶ (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

⁷ Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

⁸ Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
