PW: Love Fest

Presbyterian Women will celebrate their Love Fest on Saturday, February 14th, 2026 at Noon in the Parlor.

We will have a tasty lunch, so bring a dish to share. We will discuss Lesson Six: Finding out Joy in Christ.

First Presbyterian Church History

The answer for last week's question is:

Did Isaac Cody literally lay his life on the line?

Answer: In 1855 Isaac Cody was asked to make a speech in behalf of Kansas entering the Union as a Slave State. He protested, stating, "I can do no less than declare my real convictions. I am, and always have been, opposed to slavery. It is an institution that not only degrades the slaves but brutalizes the slave holder. And I pledge you my word... I shall lay down my life, if need be, to keep this curse...from Kansas soil." Enraged by the speech, a mob engulfed him, and he was stabbed with a knife. Two years later, Isaac succumbed to the effects of his wound.

This week's question:

When was the property bought to build the church?

The answer will be revealed next week!

Welcome and Announcements

Prayer For the Day

God, you know us as no other. You hear us when we cry out to you. You seek us when we are lost. You call our name and welcome us home. We once lived in darkness but now we live in the glorious light of your presence. You are close to us. We want to hear you and touch you. We want to see what you are doing among us in Jesus' name. Amen!

Hymn "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" Hymn #464

Call to Confession

Confession and Forgiveness

We confess that we need you to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves. Forgive us. We have lived in the deep darkness of sin and separation from you. Forgive us. We are disconnected from you and your purposes. Forgive us. You are near to us. Shine on us. Call us by name...

Next Steps:

- How do you describe God? What adjectives, adverbs, nouns do you use to explain your experience of God? Why do you use those words? What is the story behind them?
- Share with someone about those things you are feeling - frantic, panic, worry, or lost about today. Let them go.
- How can you be supportive to each other in specific ways this week?

Isaiah 9:1-4 (NIV)

¹ Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honor Galilee of the nations, by the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan—

² The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of deep darkness
a light has dawned.

³ You have enlarged the nation
and increased their joy;
they rejoice before you
as people rejoice at the harvest, as warriors rejoice
when dividing the plunder.

⁴ For as in the day of Midian's defeat,
you have shattered
the yoke that burdens them,
the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor.
