First Presbyterian Church History

The Questions from the January 4, 2026 bulletin and the Answers:

Q #1: Who supplied the impetus for establishing a protestant church in Cody?

A. 23 April 1905 > After a thorough canvass of the town, Julia Goodman invited all ladies interested in Presbyterianism to meet with her in the Irma Hotel Parlors. The result of this meeting was the organization of the Ladies Society (forerunner of P.W.). Six months later, while the men of the church were presenting their 25 signatures to the Presbyterian Spring meeting in Rawlins, the Women's Society had already been at work for months stitching aprons for sale to finance a church building.

Q #2: Why is our church Presbyterian, rather than Congregational?

A. Rev. Mr. Henry W. Bainton (on horseback) won the race in October, 1905, from Cheyenne to Cody, against the Congregationalist's Wyoming Mission Wagon, thereby securing the right to establish a Presbyterian church in Cody, with the agreement that the Congregationalists would not pursue planting a church in Cody.

God, your love is faithful and steadfast. Today we remember your steadfast love in the year that is past and we have entered the New Year in which you are present and active. Opening Hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" Hymnal #260

Call to Confession

God is present with us through the cold winter of grief and despair. God is able to comfort and sustain us through harsh circumstances and deep trouble. God is waiting to forgive our sin. Because God's steadfast love let us bring our confession before God as we join in prayer.

Confession and Forgiveness
God of this day, of everyday past, and every day to come, we admit that we have placed our trust in our own power and ability. We live in the illusion of self-sufficiency. We confess that we are dead in our sin and need you to forgive us.

Silent Confession
We were lost in the night, dead in our sin, and asleep in our own darkness. But you have changed everything. Your love brings light and life. Your life, death, and resurrection forgives sin. You are the beloved Son of heaven, and we give you our thanks and praise. We pledge to follow your way once more! Amen.

Gloria Patri

Choir “My Lord Is Like A Shepherd”

Call to Give
Let us be imitators of the Christ who gave of his time, his powers, and of himself, so that others might have life and have it abundantly. Let us worship God through our giving.

Offertory “Softly & Tenderly, Jesus is Calling” Bob Heuermann

Doxology

Prayer of Blessing
You are the God of our past, our present, and our future. You bless your people to be a blessing to others. We offer these gifts in joyful response to all that you have first given us. Bless their use in your church that they would bring hope and comfort to all that they touch. Make your church a source of strength and compassion to all who are in need in Jesus’ name. Amen!

Isaiah 63:7-9 (NIV)

<sup>7</sup> I will tell of the kindnesses of the Lord,
the deeds for which he is to be praised,
according to all the Lord has done for us—
yes, the many good things
he has done for Israel,
according to his compassion and many kindnesses.
<sup>8</sup> He said, “Surely they are my people,
children who will be true to me”;
and so he became their Savior.
<sup>9</sup> In all their distress he too was distressed,
and the angel of his presence saved them.
In his love and mercy he redeemed them;
he lifted them up and carried them
all the days of old.
