Unison Call to Worship – Psalm 103:1-4; 11-13

Praise the Lord, O my soul,
All my inmost being, praise His holy name
Praise the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits
Who forgives all your sins
And heals all your diseases
Who redeems your life from the pit
And crowns you with love and compassion.
For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
So great in His love for those who fear Him.
As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He removed our transgression from us
As a father has compassion on His children,
So the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him.

Hymn "Praise Ye The Lord The Almighty" Hymn #482

Unison Prayer of Confession

Lord Almighty, You are the King of creation. You deserve all honor and glory and all our praise but we are fast to forget all Your benefits and quick to complain and worry and doubt. You long to shelter us under Your wings, but we withdraw from You and seek shelter in people and possessions. You call us to esteem, respect, honor, and adore You above anyone or anything else but we come before you this morning to worship with a casual, irreverent attitude. Forgive us for taking your presence for granted, for treating it as common. Help us instead to tremble at Your presence. To give all our heart and mind to full attention to You and Your Word and to honor You in all we think and say and do. Amen.

Unison Benediction Hebrews 12:1-3

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses,
Let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles,
And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.
Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith,
Who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, scorning its shame,
And sat down at the right hand of the throne of God
Consider Him who endured such opposition from sinful men
Let us not grow weary and lose heart.
Let us go out and live each day in holy awe.
Amen

Scripture Genesis 22:1-18 (NIV)

Abraham Tested

¹ Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!"
"Here I am," he replied.
² Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love—Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you."
³ Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.
⁴ On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.
⁵ He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you."
⁶ Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together,
⁷ Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, "Father?"
"Yes, my son?" Abraham replied.
"The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"
⁸ Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two of them went on together.
⁹ When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.
¹⁰ Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.
¹¹ But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, "Abraham!
Abraham!"
"Here I am," he replied.
¹² "Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him.
Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son."
¹³ Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.
¹⁴ So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. And to this day it is said, "On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided."
¹⁵ The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time ¹⁶ and said, "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son, ¹⁷ I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies, ¹⁸ and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me."
