The answer for last week's question is:

Rev. Bainton was the Presbyterial Superintendent, but who was the first Pastor he appointed for Cody?

Answer: W.O. Harper was the first pastor that was appointed to the Cody church.

This week's question: How were pastors often paid in Cody's early days?

The answer will be revealed next week!

Maundy Thursday

For Maundy Thursday this year we are offering an experience of an Agape Meal. It is a service gathered around tables in Buswell Hall to enjoy a light meal, holy communion as a way to experience something that the disciples would have done in remembering what Jesus said and did.

This will be on April 2, 6:00 – 7:30 pm. RSVP either by the signup sheet in the narthex or by calling the church office.
The deadline is March 22nd.

Prayer For the Day

We, like the Psalmist, cry out in praise and thanksgiving in response to God's eternal loving-kindness, holding us, guiding us, enfolding us with grace. And, as we gather here as people of God, we pray that our worship will reflect that divine love. We offer our worship today with the remembrance of Easter still filling us with joy, and with the anticipation of Pentecost firing our devotion. Let our praise for all that God has done, is doing and will do, truly resound within our hearts and our homes, within these walls and beyond. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Confession and Forgiveness

God, we sin against you in what we think, say, and do. Forgive us. We have not loved you with our whole heart, soul, and mind and we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. Forgive us. We have turned away from you and listened to other voices. Forgive us...

Service of Holy Communion

Our Savior Jesus Christ has ordained instituted this Holy Communion to nourish and sustain those who are born again and grafted into his family: his church. Christ has instituted an earthly and visible bread as the sacrament of his body, and fruit of the vine as the sacrament of his blood.

Just as truly as we take and hold the sacraments in our hands and eat and drink them in our mouths, by which our life is then sustained, so truly we receive into our souls, for our spiritual life, the true body and true blood of Christ, our only Savior. We receive these by faith, which is the hand and the mouths of our souls.

This banquet is a spiritual table at which Christ communicates himself to us with all his benefits.

By the sue of this holy sacrament we are moved to a fervent love of God and our neighbors.

As the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed took bread and offered thanksgiving to God so too we now offer to God our thanks and praise.

With joy we praise you, gracious God, for you created heaven and earth, made us in your image, and kept covenant with us – even when we fell into sin. We give you thanks for Jesus Christ, our Lord, who by his life, death, and resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore, we join our voices with all the saints and angels and the whole creation to proclaim the glory of your name. Praise to you, Lord Jesus:

Dying, you destroyed our death; Rising, you restored our life.

Lord, Jesus come in glory.

Lord, our God, send your Holy Spirit so that this bread and cup may be for us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. May we and all your saints be united with Christ and remain faithful in hope and love. Gather your whole church, O Lord, into the glory of your kingdom. We pray in the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray:

Act Like Jesus

by Randy Frazee

New Adult Sunday School offering:

We all want to live more like Jesus lived, but simply wanting to and trying harder isn't enough. To truly become like Jesus, our beliefs need to not only inform us but also transform us. It is the practice of reaching up to God and out to others that will drive beliefs from our head to our heart. Act Like Jesus teaches the life-giving spiritual disciplines that will lead us in fulfilling our mission to love God and love our neighbor.

In this 8-session, video-based Bible study from March 8th through Sunday May 3rd. Come to the Parlor and be engaged in these conversations.

Psalm 22:22-30 (NIV)

- ²² I will declare your name to my people;
in the assembly I will praise you.
- ²³ You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!
Revere him, all you descendants of Israel!
- ²⁴ For he has not despised or scorned
the suffering of the afflicted one;
he has not hidden his face from him
but has listened to his cry for help.
- ²⁵ From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly;
before those who fear you I will fulfill my vows.
- ²⁶ The poor will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the LORD will praise him—
may your hearts live forever!
- ²⁷ All the ends of the earth
will remember and turn to the LORD,
and all the families of the nations
will bow down before him,
- ²⁸ for dominion belongs to the LORD
and he rules over the nations.
- ²⁹ All the rich of the earth will feast and worship;
all who go down to the dust will kneel before him—
those who cannot keep themselves alive.
- ³⁰ Posterity will serve him;
future generations will be told about the Lord.
