Adoration of God

Responsive Call to Worship

Come to rejoice together; God is present with us.
 Sing praises to God, all you faithful ones.

We are restored to life morning after morning.

We will extol our God, who lifts us up.

Come to be washed and cleansed, forgiven and freed.
 Renew your commitment to the One who calls us.

We have to come to listen for God’s word to us.

We will give thanks to God’s holy name.

Come to enter the race for an imperishable goal.
 Proclaim the joy of serving in God’s name.

We are here to find where God will send us.

We are ready to serve in Christ’s name.

Hymn “Come, Ye Thankful People, Come” Hymn #551

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession
Where are you, God? We confess that we have ignored you for so long that we feel out of touch. When we have a sudden need, it feels as if you are hiding from us. On those days when it seems we are down in a pit, and there is no way out, we do not dare to trust that you are there. Instead, we look for help in the wrong places and pursue our own ideas of what is best for us. Forgive us, O God, and teach us healthy self-control and responsiveness to your will. Amen.

Psalm 92 (NRSV)

Thanksgiving for Vindication

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath Day.

¹ It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
² to declare your steadfast love in the morning,
and your faithfulness by night,
³ to the music of the lute and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.
⁴ For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.
⁵ How great are your works, O LORD!
Your thoughts are very deep!
⁶ The dullard cannot know,
the stupid cannot understand this:
⁷ though the wicked sprout like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they are doomed to destruction for ever,
⁸ but you, O LORD, are on high for ever.
⁹ For your enemies, O LORD,
for your enemies shall perish;
all evildoers shall be scattered.
¹⁰ But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox;
you have poured over me[Ⓜ] fresh oil.
¹¹ My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.
¹² The righteous flourish like the palm tree,
and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹³ They are planted in the house of the LORD;
they flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁴ In old age they still produce fruit;
they are always green and full of sap,
¹⁵ showing that the LORD is upright;
he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

John 12:1-8 (NRSV)

Mary Anoints Jesus

¹ Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.
² There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him.
³ Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
⁴ But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said,
⁵ ‘Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?’
⁶ (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.)
⁷ Jesus said, ‘Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial.
⁸ You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.’
